

Name: _____

Date: _____

Conflict Analysis

Directions: Think about the conflict(s) within your book. Identify the type of conflict, then give examples and explain in the space below.

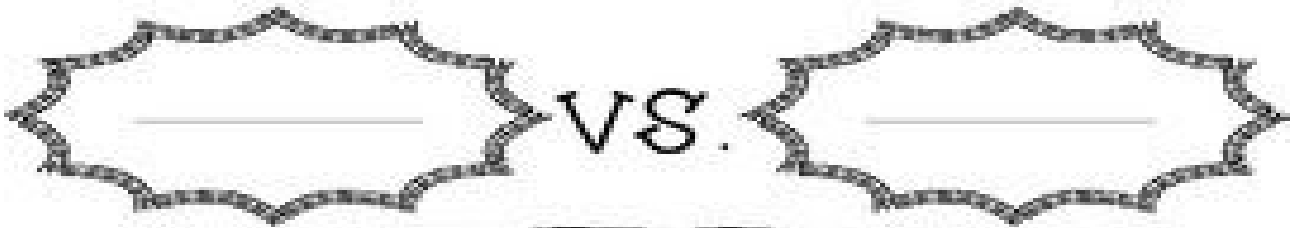

Types of conflict

Character vs. character: A character struggles with another character

Character vs. self: A character struggles with internal thoughts or ideas

Character vs. nature: A character struggles with the forces of his or her surrounding environment/nature

Character vs. society: A character struggles against the societal roles, social structures, or ideals that surround him or her

What character(s) is/are involved in this conflict? _____

Give (2) examples of this conflict from your story:

1. _____

2. _____

How do you think this conflict will be resolved? _____
