

Name: _____ Date: _____

Complex Sentences (Writing Part 1) ELA-Literacy.L.3.1i

A complex sentence has one main clause and one or more subordinate clauses.

A conjunction joins words and sentences together.

Conjunctions include; since, until, after, although, because...

Directions: Combine each pair of sentences using the given conjunction.

Example A- John hit the ball. He saw it go by him. (when)

Answer- John hit the ball, when he saw it go by him.

1. Mariah couldn't believe what she saw. It happened so fast.
(because)

---

2. I can't wait to go see the movie. I've waited so long to see it.
(since)

---

3. I want to go to the zoo. I want to see my favorite animal.
(because)

---

4. Yesterday went horrible. I feel better today. (but)

---