

© The Helpful Counselor

Kind Says or does things that support other people.	Sympathetic Feels bad when other people are going through a tough time.
---	---

© The Helpful Counselor

Respects Belongings Takes good care of other people's things.	Positive Focuses on the good things.
---	--

© The Helpful Counselor

Encouraging Uses words or actions to help others do their best or try new things.	Peaceful Doesn't like to fight and avoids "drama".
---	--

Supportive Says nice words when others are going through a challenging or difficult time.	Open Minded Willing to try new things.
---	--

Respects Personal Space Doesn't touch or crowd others.	Thinks Win-Win Tries to work out problems so everyone's needs are taken care of in the situation.
--	---

Fair Follows rules and treats everyone equally.	Helpful Tries to solve, not cause problems.
---	---

Respectful Treats everyone as though they are valuable member of the community.	Pleasant Makes others feel good when they are around.
---	---

Respects Privacy Doesn't share secrets or personal information.	Considerate Puts other people's feelings before their own.
---	--

Uses Polite Humor Doesn't laugh at others.	Trustworthy Able to keep secrets, keeps their word, and tells the truth.
--	--

© The Helpful Counselor

Empathetic Understands how people feel.	Honest Tells the truth.
---	-----------------------------------

© The Helpful Counselor

Cooperative Works with others – not against them.	Able to Communicate Willing to talk and listen to others.
---	---

© The Helpful Counselor

Compassionate Feels upset in response to the suffering of others and does something to stop it.	Reliable Will do what they say they will do.
---	--

Thoughtful Thinks about how others feel and does nice things or says nice words to make them feel better.	Includes Others Doesn't leave people out of activities on purpose.
---	--

Forgiving Willing to let go of past hurts to help the relationship.	Thankful Appreciates what they have – including friendships.
---	--

Loyal There for friends even during tough situations.	Sincere Means what they say.
---	--

Easygoing Doesn't get upset when they don't get what they want.	Generous Shares without wanting something in return.
---	--

Friendly Smiles and says nice things.	Shares Common Interests Enjoys the same activities as their friends.
---	--

Gentle Doesn't hurt others on purpose.	Polite Has good manners – uses words like please, thank you, and you're welcome.
--	--

36 Friendship Qualities & Definitions