

There once was a cat from Saint Ives,

Who jumped in a box full of knives,

It cut off its toes,

Its ears and its nose,

Now it has only EIGHT lives.

Put the lines in order.

1. Two crows and a hen
There was an old man with a beard
How all built their nests in my beard
Who said it's just as I feared
Two gulls and a wren
2. It was no use at all
But the other was large and was priced
There was a young man of Devizes
One was so small
Whose ears were of two different sizes
3. If you want to go far
You need to learn English my dear
There was a young man from Pils
Who said "It's perfectly clear
You don't need a car

Limericks

There once was a cat from Saint Ives,

Who jumped in a box full of knives,

It cut off its toes,

Its ears and its nose,

Now it has only EIGHT lives.

Put the lines in order.

1. Two crows and a hen
There was an old man with a beard
How all built their nests in my beard
Who said it's just as I feared
Two gulls and a wren
2. It was no use at all
But the other was large and was priced
There was a young man of Devizes
One was so small
Whose ears were of two different sizes
3. If you want to go far
You need to learn English my dear
There was a young man from Pils
Who said "It's perfectly clear
You don't need a car