

ANSWERS

Multiple-Choice, True/False and Short-Answer

4. Select the correct answer.

1. When a biological system is in a steady state, it is not changing.
2. When a system is in a steady state, it is not changing.
3. When a system is in a steady state, it is not changing.
4. When a system is in a steady state, it is not changing.
5. When a system is in a steady state, it is not changing.
6. When a system is in a steady state, it is not changing.
7. When a system is in a steady state, it is not changing.
8. When a system is in a steady state, it is not changing.
9. When a system is in a steady state, it is not changing.

Write your answers for questions 10-12 in the spaces below.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

5. (2008-2011) Using every letter contained in a word in the sentences

Words

1. The _____ of the system is the same as the _____ of the system.
2. The _____ of the system is the same as the _____ of the system.
3. The _____ of the system is the same as the _____ of the system.
4. The _____ of the system is the same as the _____ of the system.

Answers

1. The input of the system is the same as the output of the system.
2. The input of the system is the same as the output of the system.
3. The input of the system is the same as the output of the system.
4. The input of the system is the same as the output of the system.

