

Not all verbs show action. Some verbs are used to show that the subject exists. Linking verbs connect the subject with a word or words in the predicate.

Directions: Circle the linking verb in each sentence.

1. Charlie's clothes were wet after falling into the puddle.
2. Our two puppies are little and fluffy.
3. My favorite animated movie is Finding Nemo.
4. Kyle was the leader of our Math team.
5. The empty house seems very quiet and scary.
6. Mom's new cashmere sweater feels soft.
7. The taco with Hatch chiles tastes very spicy.
8. The red rose in the vase smells fragrant.
9. Aunt Flo became more and more agitated with the fly.
10. I am happy that summer is almost here.

Directions: Choose two linking verbs from above and write a sentence for each.
