

First Grade Homework

Week of October 31 - November 4

Monday No Homework Happy Halloween! Weekly Math Pages: 63-64, 65-66 1:30 Dismissal	Tuesday No School Read for 15-20 minutes Practice Spelling 1:30 Dismissal
Wednesday Spelling/Dictation (Give a practice spelling test with dictation to keep at home) Read 15-20 minutes 1:30 Dismissal	Thursday Finish math and turn in tomorrow Read 15-20 minutes Practice Spelling 1:30 Dismissal

Sentence Dictation

1. If you trip you will crack some of your eggs.
2. It's fun to see many frogs jump.

Core Words

It's some many crack trip

Homework is...

Homework is an important part of our first grade curriculum. We encourage your support. We suggest 15 - 20 minutes per day on homework in addition to reading. Develop a homework schedule with your child. Choose a comfortable place to work and have fun!