

Multiplication Circles

Copyright Highhill Education

Example:
Four Times Table

- 0
- 4
- 8
- 12
- 16
- 20

Start at zero

It's like a dot-to-dot using the one's digit.

As you multiply draw a line around the circle connecting the dots for the one's digit only.

Use the blank circles to see what designs appear for other multipliers.

