

Nouns, verbs and adjectives

Nouns are naming words. They are words for people, animals, places and things.

Verbs are doing words. They tell what is happening.

Adjectives are describing words. They tell you more about nouns.

- Color all rectangles with nouns in brown.
- Color all rectangles with verbs in green.
- Color all rectangles with adjectives in blue.