

Down the Stoney Steps

Circle the preposition and underline the prepositional phrase in each sentence. Then check the box that tells what the preposition describes.

- 1. Snow had fallen throughout the night.
  - 2. John and Karl dashed into a winter wonderland.
  - 3. They started making a giant snowman, rolling snowballs up the hill.
  - 4. They kept rolling snowballs until noon.
  - 5. Then they propped the colossal snowballs beside a tree.
  - 6. Karl and John ran back to their houses.
  - 7. After that, a curious squirrel appeared.
  - 8. The squirrel jumped on a snowball, and the snowball began rolling.
  - 9. The snowball rolled faster, whizzing down the hill.
  - 10. Before long, Karl and John saw what was happening.
  - 11. The snowball and the squirrel were rolling toward the big pond.
  - 12. Karl hoped the snowball would stop at the pond's edge.
  - 13. It didn't; the snowball plowed in the water.
  - 14. For several seconds, John and Karl scanned the water's surface.
  - 15. Then they saw the snowball and the wet squirrel floating to the surface.