

READING & ASSIGNMENTS

List 20's' Nominative Phrases:
(List of the subject) subject of the sentence)
(name/noun/Pro name)
Who	referring to things that make persons
What	referring to things that make things
Which	referring to things that make persons
It	referring to one's self (myself)
He	referring to someone else (him)
She	referring to someone else
They	plural referring to them
You	person of address (you) (you) (you) (you)

Example: I will praise the teachers.

I is my older brother.

They are very smart girls.

They are getting her (her) things.

She is my younger sister.

It is the greatest gift she ever gave me.

Antecedent (person)	person or thing (name or name of person, place, thing, animal, or object) to which the pronoun refers
----------------------------	---

Who (antecedent) and responsible (pronoun) is the president of our state.

(antecedent) (pronoun) " she - refers to her

She is at the front of the class (antecedent) is the captain of the team.

(antecedent) (pronoun) " she - refers to her

Test 1: Underline the nouns/words, underline the pronouns with its antecedent, and underline both the pronoun and its antecedent.

1. John is the best actor in the play. He is excited and very talented.
2. My father is visiting our friends. They were married.
3. Mike and John are brothers. They are very close to each other.
4. Maria, Deshaun, and going to the bank. They will buy me a new jacket.
5. She is sleeping under the table. He was shouting.
6. Sam, her, and her are brothers. They are the tallest in their class.
7. Later on, they are going to give me some food to the park.
8. My friend will paint pictures on the wall. He will show some help.
9. My friend likes the girl. She was smiling to the street.
10. The girl likes the boy. He was smiling to the street.