

Level 2:

Lesson 18 (p. 100)

Student Worksheet

1. Look at the picture (p. 100) to identify the following:

- a. Title: _____
- b. Where: _____
- c. What: _____

2. Read the paragraph below. How does it compare with your school system?

Student worksheet is an author's assignment for students to complete. The assignment is prepared by the teacher and is given to students. When used, they have the task of reading and writing. The worksheet often consists of tasks, short or long answers, and short answers. It often includes the student's own writing between questions and answers. It is typically written of a class or a class with either whole class or small groups. The student often gets to see answers. There is a class that is used for student work. It is often prepared by the teacher to be used with students. It is often used to assess students' writing that are usually standard and often used to assess students' writing. It is often used to assess students' writing, using it as a tool and often using it as a tool.

3. Read the introduction and the beginning of each paragraph to identify the text type, justify your answer.

The first paragraph is a _____ paragraph. The second paragraph is a _____ paragraph.