

Practice the words in the speaking bubbles and write the words and draw the pictures in the trees that you see and identify a sentence. You can identify with a sentence with an of what then with then in an that see picture.

The illustration shows a farm scene. On the left, a tree has 'this' in its canopy, and a child sitting on the ground holds a sign that says 'come'. In the center, a fence has three posts with signs that say 'with', 'what', and 'with'. On the right, another tree has 'what' and 'this' in its canopy, and a child standing next to it holds a sign that says 'with'. A wheelbarrow in the foreground has a sign that says 'what'. The ground has 'this' and 'then' written on it. At the bottom, a box contains the following words with dot patterns for tracing: 'this' (1 dot), 'what' (2 dots), 'come' (3 dots), 'then' (4 dots), 'want' (5 dots), and 'with' (6 dots).

• this	•• what	••• come	•••• then	••••• want	•••••• with
--------	---------	----------	-----------	------------	-------------