

Label Map of Deserts

Read the definitions below, then label the major deserts on the world map.

Arabian - covering most of the Arabian peninsula.

Atacama - running down the western coast of South America (in Chile).

Australian - hot deserts covering much of western and central Australia.

Iranian - northeast of the Arabian peninsula and west of the Thar desert.

Kalahari - covering much of the southeastern tip of Africa.

Namib - running down the southwestern coast Africa.

North American - rain shadow deserts in southwestern North America, in the USA and Mexico.

Patagonian - in southeastern South America.

Saharan - a huge desert covering much of northern Africa - the biggest desert in the world.

TaklaMakan-Gobi - a continental desert in central Asia.

Thar - in northwest India.

Turkestan - in southern Russia.