

Paragraphs and punctuation

Rewrite the following passage in paragraphs, punctuating it, and changing small letters into capital letters where necessary.

Remember: Paragraphs separate ideas, themes, or instructions. Without paragraphs, writing can be difficult to understand.

rainbow

we have to keep up when i feel i'm nothing in the sky we see all the rainbows worldwide the human goes and most of us share his feelings when we are lucky enough to see a rainbow there is an old saying that a pot of gold is buried at the end of the rainbow but have you ever tried to search a rainbow and of course its impossible because a rainbow is really just the result of the sunbeams reflecting and scattering light from our eyes there are seven colors in the rainbow red orange yellow green blue indigo and violet

Rewrite this section of a play script in a story. Use paragraphs and question marks. Write on a separate sheet of paper... and continue the story, if you wish.

Remember: When writing direct speech (dialogue), start a new paragraph each time the speaker changes.

"It's raining again, but the sun is shining as well!" said Nick.
"I think we should go swimming instead!" said Sophie.
"We might get wet ... that's not a bad idea," suggested Nick.
"We won't mind without getting wet, Nick. What difference does it make?" Sophie asked.

"Mm?" exclaimed Nick.

"What is it?" asked Sophie.

"Look - a rainbow over the beach!" cried Nick.

"Quick, get your spade - we'll be rich!" exclaimed Sophie.
