

In 2050

► Where will you be? How will you be? What will you be?

a. How old will you be?	d. Where will you live? Will you still live in your country or in another country? Will you live in a city or in a village?	f. Will you be married? Will you have a partner?
b. Will you have children? How many? Will you be a parent? Will you be a grandparent?	e. What will you do? Will you still work? Will you be a professional? Will you be a student? Will you be a retiree?	g. Will you be able to travel? Will you be able to visit other countries? Will you be able to visit other people?

► What will the world look like? How will people live and work?

a. What language will people speak? Will people still speak their own language? Will people still speak English? Will people still speak Spanish? Will people still speak Chinese?	c. How will children play? Will children still play with toys? Will children still play with friends? Will children still play with adults? Will children still play with animals?	g. What kind of food will there be? Will there be more food? Will there be less food? Will there be different kinds of food? Will there be more food? Will there be less food?
b. How will people travel? Will people still travel? Will people still travel by plane? Will people still travel by car? Will people still travel by train? Will people still travel by boat?	d. What will school be like? Will there still be schools? Will there still be teachers? Will there still be students? Will there still be exams? Will there still be homework? Will there still be grades?	h. Will there be peace? Will there be more peace? Will there be less peace? Will there be different kinds of peace? Will there be more peace? Will there be less peace?
e. Will there be money? Will there still be money? Will there still be banks? Will there still be shops? Will there still be stores? Will there still be markets? Will there still be malls?	i. What kind of sports will there be? Will there still be sports? Will there still be games? Will there still be competitions? Will there still be winners? Will there still be losers?

