

this – that – these – those

Use:

We use "this" for one object (singular) which is here (near to us).

Example: This is a book in my hand.

We use "that" for one object (singular) which is there.

Example: That is his car over there.

We use "these" for more than one object (plural) which are here (near to us).

Example: These are my friends next to me.

We use "those" for more than one object (plural) which are there.

Example: Those are his toys over there.