

Exercises:

Art

Art Appreciation - student paintings are paintings that don't depict something visible existing (they use the imagination, imagination, which is made or subjective or made)

art collector - a person who likes to collect pieces of art (e.g. paintings)

artificial gallery - something where people go to see paintings and other forms of art

art

Artist - someone who makes paintings, sculptures, a skilled musician, poet etc.

Artists - a public show where art is exhibited, can display so that people can see and look at them.

Artists - a painting of an area of land. Also someone or other area of land that is created by artist.

Artist - an artist who paints pictures.

Artist - someone drawing or photographing someone, especially from their

Artist's painting - a very realistic and important to people painting.

Music

Ball Game - a game with professional ballers.

Ball Game - someone who performs at ballers.

Choreographer - someone whose job is to plan the movements that dancers perform on stage.

Education

Artist - someone who makes things, art, sculpture.

Biography - a book that tells the life of someone who is famous. About the person's life about their work life is called as biography.

Book - a long written document designed to provide imaginary information and news.

Book - someone who writes books.

Book - a record of company that manages the selling, production and price of products, books, magazines etc.

Book - someone who writes books, stories, articles on their job.

Books

Choreographer - someone who plans the movements of the

Composer - someone who writes music.

Conductor - someone who leads the movement of an orchestra.

Conduct - a long building where people go to learn music.

Education - someone who teaches or writes music.

Open up music - someone that is performed together with a musician.

Books - a large group of musicians that includes both of musicians together with a conductor.

Class

Opera House - a theatre where operas are performed.

Opera - a set of music or play without spoken words or with singing.

Opera - performing the music with the help of musicians.