
Class Test No. 4

Date: _____

1. WRITING

You are planning a trip to London with your family. Write down what you think the weather going to be like and what you are going to do in London. Think of some famous sights there, their cost if a special and interesting place and say what you would like to visit if (possible) it's possible.

2. COMPREHENSION (READING)a. London sights

Complete the following information about some of London's sights. Use the notes in brackets as the basis of the missing part of the sentence. Write the answers in your next book.

Example: 1. William I became the first ruler who succeeded to become King of England.

(to – Tower of London – began – 1066)

(to be – Tower of London was begun in 1066)

2. Christopher Columbus discovered America's continent in 1492.

(sailing – 1492 – 1492)

3. Big Ben is the most famous bell in the world.

(to be – to contain – 1307 bells – 1859 high)

4. Three Bridges is more than 100 years old.

(open – 1888)

5. London has a very long history for a very long time.

(first written – 1000 – 1000)

6. The British Empire was built in the 17th century.

(to build – 1600 – by her – 1700)

b. From the notes below, write the correct change the following sentences from the active into the passive. Please mark the sentences as a or b as appropriate, if necessary.

1. Christopher Columbus discovered America's continent.

2. Last month, someone visited three bridges in London.

3. John Carter always visits the houses of his neighbours.

4. The weather forecast predicted bad weather for the whole week.
