

'The best holiday I ever had'

The best holiday I ever had was when I went to Florida with my family.

When my Dad told me I was very excited because it was going to be my first time in the 'real' states of America. I asked my dad when we were going and he said 'we are going on the 1st July and coming home on the 15th August' but the bad thing was I had to wait two months to go.

Two days and the rest of the time I was packing my suitcase. I packed 10 days of t-shirts and shorts. My mum packed 10 days of swimsuits and sun cream because she is the coolest person in and is always so careful in the sun.

After all the bags were packed into the boot we all went on our way to the airport to get our tickets.

When we got to the airport we left our luggage with the airport staff to put it on the plane.

A woman came up on the TV screen saying that our flight had been delayed for 4 hours. After we knew about the delay we had to wait for 4 hours because they were working.

After 2 hours a manager said 'could passengers going to Orlando Florida make their way to gate 17 everyone checked and we all made our way to the plane.'

I think it's hard to get to Orlando but it was well worth it.

When we arrived it was 11:00 in the morning and the first part was to find our hotel, and our way was great but in a place called 'Daddy's Creek' and my family blamed it on my Dad because he was driving.

Eventually we reached our hotel with a bit of a struggle at 1:30pm.

When we got to our room we put our bags to one side of the room and happened that looking on the back.