

Color Worksheet

1. Paint a primary color in the interior or exterior box. Then, paint in the complementary color to that primary color. Write the definition of complementary color to the right.

Complementary color:

2. Paint 3 analogous colors in the boxes below. Then, write the definition to the right.

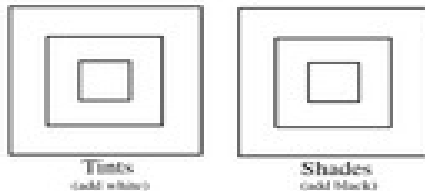

Analogous colors:

3. Paint a triad harmony that does not use primary colors. Then, write the definition to the right.

Triad harmony:

4. Mix a color. Paint a progressive monochromatic scheme using monochromatic tints on the left and monochromatic shades on the right. Write the definition to the right.

Monochromatic:

5. Paint an achromatic scale. Then, write the definition below.

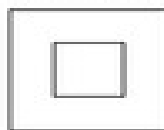

Achromatic scale:

6. List all of the warm colors on the color wheel:

7. List all of the cool colors on the color wheel:

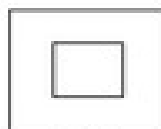

8. Mix a color. Paint it as an opaque color in the exterior box and as a translucent color in the interior box. Then, write the definitions to the right.

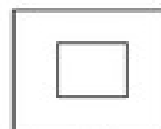

Opaque:

Translucent:

9. Mix two colors. Mix shades & tints of those colors to create a 1) high contrast colors and 2) low contrast colors. Write the definitions to the right.

High

Low

High contrast:

Low contrast: