

Name: _____

Date: _____

Breaking Apart Compound Sentence Worksheet

A compound sentence is made by joining two independent clauses together with a conjunction. Conjunctions: for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so

Directions: Re-write each compound sentence as two simple sentences on the lines provided.

Example A: John and Sam collected comic books.

Answer: John collected comic books. Sam collected comic books.

1. Dan likes to race his car fast, but he should think about safety.

---

---

2. I knew exactly where I put my wallet, but I still couldn't find it.

---

---

3. I love to draw, and my friend loves to design in art class.

---

---

4. Jerry loves to work on computers, and so does Mike.

---

---