

RESPONSE LETTERS

My English

It has been so long since I have written to you. Thank you for your letter and...

Thank you for your lovely letter. It is always a pleasure to hear from you. I am very sorry that you have been sick. It sounds as if you had the real new flu-virus.

Thank you for your letter of 1 November, 2000 (which I have just received) (which I received yesterday).

(which I received on Tuesday the 27th.)

It was great pleasure to hear from your letter that...

What a surprise it was to get a letter from you.

I should have replied long ago but do not often get time to private correspondence.

Here, at last, is the letter I have been intending to write for about six months.

My Health

I am always pleased to hear from you.

I hope to hear from you soon.

I hope that you are feeling better and I certainly look forward to the next letter from you.

I'm out of paper. Write soon.

I wish you good luck every day and night.

Do let me hear about yourself and your family from time to time.

Take good care of yourself and write when you have time.

I must close now.

Hope this soon.

With best wishes (With my best wishes) Best wishes! My best wishes,

With all my love and best wishes,

All the best,

Love,

With love of love,

With all my love and best wishes (With all my love and best wishes)
