

'The best holiday I ever had'

The best holiday I ever had was when I went to Florida with my family.

When my Dad told me I was very excited because it was going to be my first time in the four states of America. I asked my dad when we were going and he said we are going on the 1stst July and coming home on the 15th August but the bad thing was I had to wait two months to go.

Two days and the rest of the time I was packing my suitcase. I packed lots of t-shirts and shorts. My mum packed lots of bottles of sun cream because she is the one who gets an awful sunburn if she is not careful in the sun.

After all the bags were packed into the boat we all went on our way to the main airport in Miami.

When we got to the airport we left our luggage with the airport staff to put it on the plane.

Someone came up on the TV screen saying that our flight had been delayed for 4 hours. After we knew about the delay we had to wait for 4 hours because they were working.

After 4 hours someone said could passengers going to Orlando Florida make their way to gate 17 everyone cheered and we all made our way to the plane.

I think it takes us to get to Orlando but it was well worth it.

When we arrived it was 11pm in the morning and the first part was to find our hotel, and our way was just in a place called Disney

World and my family blamed it on my Dad because he was driving.

Eventually we reached our hotel with a bit of a struggle at 5pm.

When we got to our room we had a lot of things to do.
