

Exploring Author's Language

Read the passages below from The River. Identify the literary device in each passage. Then fill in the blank with the correct literary device to label each passage.

metaphor
sensory words

alliteration
onomatopoeia

simile
personification

1

The mud was so thick it pulled his right sleeve shore off, and when he groped around in the mud find his arm, seemed to pull at him, tried to take him down.

2

The mosquitoes, tearing at him, clouds of them, she would, ripping, tickle masses of the small monsters trying to bleed him dry.

3

Like a camera taking pictures with a strobe light, things would seem frozen in time.

4

He met a girl in school, Deborah McLean. They hit it off and were on a few dates.

5

....curling up into his eyes there came the tiny flicker of new flame.

6

....see nothing but images frozen in the split instances of brilliance from the lightning.

7

But where is was again. A howling! Whoa! That left him.
It was lower than that. Not so far heard, but felt.
A whooshing --- water.
A winter sound!