

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

Venn Diagram – Rectangles

Place one rectangle on the left and another rectangle on the right. These two rectangles should not go outside the space between the two boxes.

Example: Put the set of all equilateral triangles on the left and the set of all squares on the right. The intersection of the two sets would be represented by the shaded area between the two sets—there is the set of all equilateral squares.

