

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

Venn Diagram – Rectangles

Place one rectangle on the left. Place another rectangle on the right. These two rectangles should not go outside the space between the two boxes.

Example: Put the set of all equilateral triangles on the left of the box. Put the set of all squares on the right. The area where the two boxes overlap represents the set of all polygons that are both equilateral and square—that is, the set of all squares.

