

Be an Art Critic!

Art Critics critique or analyze art. They know a lot about art.

People are usually very interested in what an Art Critic thinks about a work of art.

Sometimes you will agree with the opinions of an Art Critic, sometimes you will not.

Be an Art Critic! Pick out one of the pieces of art being exhibited at the museum.

Then complete this form.

The work of art I am critiquing is called _____

The artist's name is _____

This is what I see when I look at the artwork: _____

All artwork is made using a variety of art elements: line, shape, color, texture, and space. The one or two elements that stand out in this work of art are: _____

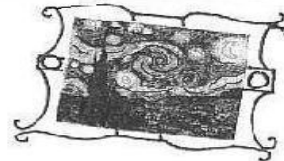

Artists create a mood in their artwork. Sometimes the mood is happy. Sometimes the mood is sad or angry. Some artwork makes the viewer feel alone. The mood of this artwork is: _____

Artists make statements or send messages with their art. I think this artist was trying to say: _____

I like _____ I do not like _____ this artwork because: _____

My name is: _____

_____, Art Critic

Credit to: Mindy Agress, Atlantic West Elementary School