

By the Great Horn Spoon

Homophones Chapters 1-11

Name: _____

Great or Grate?

First you have to _____ the sweet and sour potato. Then you add in the remaining ingredients.

We always remove the _____ of our fries so that ketchup can come through.

Directions: Circle the correct homophone in each sentence below.

1. The passengers used (well, what)-oil to light their lamps on the ship.
2. Captain Swain sent Pribnoworthy and Jack to the (road, coil) bunkers to work off their passage.
3. When the square-rigger crossed paths with the Lady Wilma, (its, it's) sails were hanging like curtains.
4. The Lady Wilma sailed a different (course, coarse) through the Strait of Magellan, and not around Cape Horn, and took the load in the rear.
5. Pribnoworthy thinks the Lady Wilma has a good (chance, chance) of winning the race against the Sea Raven.
6. Captain Swain (load, towed) the square-rigger even though it could have cost him the race.
7. After he lost his bowler hat, Pribnoworthy (tied, tied) a handkerchief around his head to protect himself from the hot sun.
8. Pribnoworthy figured out that Cut-Eye Higgins was the scoundrel who had stolen their (fair, fare).