

Post-Test
WRITTEN

Identify the type of irony in each scenario. Dramatic, verbal, and situational.

1. When Laurel went to practice archery, she missed the target every time she shot. She was so frustrated that she decided to give up and buy a gun. She had her first shot hit the bullseye. Verbal

2. When Laurel went to practice archery, she missed every shot. She had her first shot hit the bullseye and she was so excited that she decided to buy a gun. She had her first shot hit the bullseye. Situational

3. When Laurel went to practice archery, she missed every shot. She had her first shot hit the bullseye and she was so excited that she decided to buy a gun. She had her first shot hit the bullseye. Situational

4. When Laurel went to practice archery, she missed every shot. She had her first shot hit the bullseye and she was so excited that she decided to buy a gun. She had her first shot hit the bullseye. Situational

5. When Laurel went to practice archery, she missed every shot. She had her first shot hit the bullseye and she was so excited that she decided to buy a gun. She had her first shot hit the bullseye. Situational

6. When Laurel went to practice archery, she missed every shot. She had her first shot hit the bullseye and she was so excited that she decided to buy a gun. She had her first shot hit the bullseye. Situational