

Past, present and future forms

Circle the correct option for each sentence.

- Yesterday I had / have / will have a sandwich for dinner.
Tomorrow I had / have / will have a sandwich for dinner.
Today I had / have / will have a sandwich for dinner.
Today I had / have / will have coffee at breakfast.
Will you had / have / will have dinner with me?
Today I was / am / will be meeting my friend.
Today I was / am / will be starting my course.
Yesterday I was / was / will be starting my course.
Tomorrow I will / will / will be starting my course.

Fill in the blank using had, have, will have, was, am or will be:

- Tomorrow I _____ my friend to England.
I _____ at 8 o'clock on that week.
I _____ in England's other schools.
I _____ in England yesterday.
I _____ starting my new job yesterday.
I _____ eggs for breakfast tomorrow.
Tomorrow I _____ a message.
Yesterday I _____ a hand ache.
I _____ before the match.
I _____ before the match today.
Today I _____ breakfast with my friend.
I _____ to go to the party.
I hope tomorrow _____ a good day.