

Tips From a Pro

Draw a box around each cause-and-effect key word or phrase in the selection below. Next, circle each cause and underline its effect. Then draw an arrow from the cause to the effect.

Cause-and-Effect Key Words because	since	as if...then	as a result	so
so that	consequently	for this reason
therefore	due to	nevertheless
this led to	on account of

Tip: You watch me cook, and you can learn to be a great chef. Like this, I know each of you wants to become a great chef. Therefore, I will teach you key cooking skills.

As I am often asked to host TV programs, I may not be here every day. Since I will not always be in class with you, I have created a series of video lessons. Pay attention to each lesson so your time will not be wasted. You will make mind-blowing meals if you follow my rules.

First, always use the freshest produce you can find. As a result, your food will taste fabulous. Second, bake breads and cakes at the exact temperatures I give you. Then they will be perfect. Third, I have found that many dishes fail due to measuring mistakes. Finally, messy kitchens can lead to accidents. Therefore, you must keep the kitchen clean.

I want each one of you to become a great chef. For this reason, I will come and help you at your first job. If all my students are highly successful, then I will continue to be successful too.

I think I am great; therefore, I am not humble.

Bonus Step: Using five of the key words above, write five cause-and-effect statements about school.