

READING & ASSIGNMENTS

List 20's' Nominative Phrases:
(List of the subject) subject of the sentence)
(name/noun/Pro name)
She	referred to during her trial period.
John	referred to during his trial period.
John	referred to during his trial period.
It	referred to John's trial period.
It	referred to John's trial period.
She	referred to during her trial period.
John	referred to during his trial period.
It	referred to during his trial period.

Example: I will pass the information.

John is my older brother.

John was very patient about.

John was sitting in the chair's office.

John is my younger sister.

John is the greatest gift she ever gave me.

Antecedent	person or thing that is named or referred to in a sentence, clause, or phrase.
-------------------	--

John is a good and responsible person. John is the president of our class.

(Antecedent) (Antecedent) "she" - refers to John

John is a good and responsible person. John is the captain of the team.

(Antecedent) (Antecedent) "he" - refers to John

Text 1: Underline the nouns/words, phrases and clauses with antecedent, put an arrow from the antecedent to the antecedent.

1. John is the best actor in the class. He is excited and very talented.
2. Michael is visiting our friend. She calls Michael.
3. John and John are brothers. They are very close to each other.
4. John, John and John are going to the bank. They will buy me some supplies.
5. John is sleeping under the table. He is sleeping.
6. John, John and John are brothers. They are the best of their class.
7. John is going to the bank. He will give me some food for the class.
8. John will visit our friend. He will give me some help.
9. John is visiting our friend. He is visiting for the first time.
10. The girl who is the best is calling John. It seems to be true.