

Exercise 4: Organizing Words

Name _____ Email _____

Directions: First, identify the subject words within brackets (underlined) in each. Then determine whether the subject is a noun or a verb. Classify the parts of the sentence as parts of questions with underlined subject words. Finally, organize the sentence.

Simple subject and simple predicate

1. Dog jumped.

2. Mathematics.

3. He thought.

Compound subject and compound predicate

4. Bill and Ted played.

5. My parents and I visited.

6. Tom and Jerry are not any.

Modifiers

7. The cat meowed.

8. She is very happy to be here.

9. How and where does she live.

Objects

10. My mother loves me.

11. The very gentle gent is very kind.

12. My mother loves me and my brother.

Appositives

13. My brother is very kind.

14. The dog is very kind.

15. The most important part of the game is the goal.