

Binomial Distribution:

Work through the "Binomial Example" worksheet located inside the Excel file. This example shows how to create a Binomial Probability Distribution.

Work questions 1 and 2 listed below using Excel. For each question, create the entire binomial distribution for the situation described in the question. The "BINOMDIST" function will calculate the probability results. You'll need to create a binomial distribution table and distribution

