

Direct and Indirect Object Pronouns

Exercise

Circle the direct object and put a line under the indirect object. Some sentences will not have direct and/or indirect objects.

1. Don't give me a headache.
2. He took me to the new shop.
3. I attended.
4. Drink the water, please.
5. My writing is up in the cloud.
6. Take your car to the car.
7. She gave me the car.
8. Are you talking to me?
9. My pen is off the car.
10. He is talking to her.

Write the names with the correct pronouns. Use either the subject pronouns (I, you, he, she, it, we, they) or object pronouns (me, him, her, it, us, them).

1. Salvo's love of music that she doesn't want. _____ talking to her _____ for the first time.
2. She's talking to her neighbor. _____ talking to her _____.
3. She's talking to her neighbor. _____ talking to her _____.
4. The baby likes to throw food at the people who are _____ talking to her _____.
5. She's talking to her neighbor. _____ talking to her _____.

Write your own sentences using direct and indirect objects. Use your own words. Write them on the lines below.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____