The Story Project: A Lesson Plan for the Combining Voices Literary Competition

The Story Project Worksheet

ų
Brainstorming Without thinking too hard, write the first words that come to your mind when you look at the painting.
Building a Word Bank Describe the objects and events in the painting using only nouns. Make the nouns as precise as you can. For example, instead of car, write Ford.
Use adjectives to describe:
mies.
shapes:
•
colors:
textures: