

WAS IT HALLOWEEN?

Poems

Last night on my block I saw
A robot, a princess, a fairy grandma

Two Yodas, a monster, a goblin green
I thought it might be Halloween

Little kids were filling the streets
Everyone had a bag full of sweets

I heard them calling "trick or treat"
I saw them stumbling on clown feet

I saw a sheet, or was it a ghost?
I saw pumpkin heads the most

The strangest neighbors I've ever seen
Maybe it was Halloween
