

Directions: Read each sentence below. Look at the underlined words and write a pronoun that can take its place.

1. Julie brought the cookies over to the table. _____

2. Mrs. Carlson put the boxes in a large vase. _____

3. The Mayor awarded the Key of the City to Mr. Wachusett. _____

4. I drew a picture with crayons for my mother. _____

5. The large pile of clothing on the floor belongs to Carl. _____

Directions: Read each sentence below. Circle the pronoun in the predicate and write a noun that can take its place. Be creative, but the sentence should make sense.

6. The letter of recommendation was mailed to her. _____

7. The clerk gave them their change. _____

8. If Carla wants to go she needs to ask him. _____

9. Shannon, please put it into the refrigerator. _____