

PANIC AT SEVILLE

In early May 2000, thousands of people gathered in Seville, Spain, for the annual festival of "Feria de Abril" (April Fair). The festival is held in the city's "casas de feria" (fair houses) and is one of the most important cultural events in Spain. During the festival, people dance and drink flamenco wine. In 2000, however, the festival was marred by a tragedy that shocked the world. On the first day of the festival, a group of young people were killed and injured during a fire that broke out in one of the fair houses. The fire started in a kitchen and spread quickly, trapping many people inside. The fire caused the deaths of 18 people and injured over 100 others. The fire was caused by a gas leak in a kitchen. The fire started in a kitchen and spread quickly, trapping many people inside. The fire caused the deaths of 18 people and injured over 100 others. The fire was caused by a gas leak in a kitchen.

Police were able to identify exactly what happened, but the cause of the fire was still unclear. The fire started in a kitchen and spread quickly, trapping many people inside. The fire caused the deaths of 18 people and injured over 100 others. The fire was caused by a gas leak in a kitchen. The fire started in a kitchen and spread quickly, trapping many people inside. The fire caused the deaths of 18 people and injured over 100 others. The fire was caused by a gas leak in a kitchen.

QUESTIONS

1. Which of the following sentences is TRUE?
 - a. According to the text, the fire started in a kitchen.
 - b. The fire started in the kitchen of the fair house at 2000 in Seville.
 - c. The cause of the incident was not known.
 - d. The police was able to escape with the children finding the person responsible for it.
2. Which of the following sentences is FALSE?
 - a. The newspaper gave the exact time of the incident in the article.
 - b. The newspaper said there were people who were not injured.
 - c. The newspaper about the fire was in the newspaper of the city in a different place.
 - d. The newspaper said many people were injured.
3. What parallel gaps in Seville?
 - a. Why was the person arrested not identified?
 - b. Make 3-4 key questions about the story.
 - c. Write 3-4 more key questions.