

What's going to happen?

As you read The Jig, choose at least three events to make predictions about. Record your prediction and what clues from the text and pictures made you think that. Then, write what really happened next in the story.

Event in story...	What I think will happen...	Clues in the story...	What really happened...