

Idioms about Friendship:

Match the expressions on the left with their meanings:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| 1. to share a secret | to tell people facts about something they shouldn't be telling |
| 2. to get on well | to be often in agreement |
| 3. to have a fight | to stop fighting or quarrelling |
| 4. to be on the same side | to work with someone and make good friends and difficult times together |
| 5. to be on different sides | to disagree with someone |
| 6. to speak up your differences | to communicate openly to your partner |
| 7. through thick and thin | to stay together with someone in difficult situations |

B. Complete the sentences or letters with the appropriate idiom.

1. "There's been a row for the night. There's loads of fuss over the way the two best players of our country and the best player for a foreign country, they're really close, _____ together."
2. "I used to fight a lot with my sister. My mum would always make us apologise and _____ us but now we never fight again."
3. "I hated the way the best footballing things without asking me but perhaps that should stand _____ on whether there are friends with our feet."
4. "They used to be best friends but they had a row fight about money. Now they're _____."
5. "They don't disagree _____ or perhaps they're not quite friends."
6. "It's always good to talk to things, don't you agree? Don't you?" _____
7. "After years of arguing about politics, nothing had, we finally discovered _____ had changed things in change their opinion."