

The Great Depression: Causes and Effects Worksheet

The optimism of the 1920s concealed problems in the American economic system.

Cause	Effect
People overspeculated on stocks, using borrowed money.	People could not pay the borrowed money back when stock prices began to go down.
The Federal Reserve System was not able to regulate banks or keep the value of money stable.	The banking system failed.
The United States placed high tariffs on goods coming into the United States.	Other countries put high tariffs on U.S. goods that they imported. International trade declined.

QUESTION 2: WHAT ARE THE FEARS ABOUT TAKING SKING, ONE OR MORE

SYSTEMS SEEMS TO IMPROVE THE SITUATION?

need or want.

- I'm afraid to speak up for what I
- I'm afraid of his or her reaction.
- If I take responsibility for any of it, then he/she will think I'm weak.

Page 1 Page 1

Director Change 1988 Agency Me