

Name _____
Date _____
Block _____

Worksheet #5 Compound Subject and Compound Predicate /44

Part 1 Parts of Speech Review /14

Instructions: Label the articles (Art), nouns (N), pronouns (Pro), adjectives (Adj), verbs (V), adverbs (Adv), prepositions (Prep), and conjunctions (Con) in the following sentence.

HINT: Use the process of elimination. Find the articles first, then the nouns, pronouns, adjectives, verbs, adverbs, prepositions and conjunctions!

The extremely energetic students will be excitedly returning to their classrooms in a week.

Part 2 Subject and Predicate Review /6

Instructions: Underline each of the simple subjects once and the simple predicates twice. Draw a vertical line between the complete subject and the complete predicate.

1. Teachers supervise.
2. Hordes of students fill the hallways.
3. Happy students laugh at new jokes.

Part 3 Compound Subject Practice /5

Instructions: Underline each of the compound subjects once. Hint: you get one mark for underlining both parts of the compound subject!

1. Parents and students shop for new school supplies.
2. Teachers and students head for their classrooms.
3. Nines and tens will go to the first assembly.
4. Parents and guardians of new students will be invited for a tour of the school.
5. Sunny beaches and warm lakes are traded in for warm classrooms.