

Direct Speech

Direct speech is a sentence that is a question or answer.

Example: "I am going to the park." (said by a boy)

They are two parts: the part that is a question or answer and the part that is a sentence.

For example:

Question: "What time is it?"

Answer: "It is 10 o'clock."

Example: "I am going to the park." (said by a boy)

Question: "What time is it?"

Answer: "It is 10 o'clock."

Question: "What time is it?"

Answer: "It is 10 o'clock."

Example: "I am going to the park." (said by a boy)

For example:

Question: "What time is it?"

Example: "I am going to the park." (said by a boy)

Question: "What time is it?"

Answer: "It is 10 o'clock."

Example: "I am going to the park." (said by a boy)