

COMBINE EXERCISES – PART 1
Children level 2 up – Adults level 1 up

Structure: Students work in 2 groups with the aid of the topic collection.
Encourage use of communication functions when using the text.

FILE

TOPIC COLLECTION

APPROACH 1

You go to your neighbor to complain about the dog who keeps getting into your garden, making messes, and barking your plants.
There is a case of the dog on your neighbour's side and it is his responsibility.

APPROACH 2

You see an old lady living alone.
Your dog is your companion and you are devoted to him.
You know there is a case but you can't afford to have it repaired.
You see your neighbor is making a fuss about nothing.

KEY POINTS/NOTES – Try and use connectors / conjunctions when using this text.
Play with the text – substitute the text whatever it is and think!

APPROACH 3

1. Your dog is ruining my garden.
2. He/she/it is really annoying.
3. He is using my path.
4. He keeps barking and making a mess in the garden.
5. How often you bark and what with you bark.
6. You spend a fortune money on him.
7. Why don't you get rid of it?
8. Look at that dog in the fence. It's your responsibility. You should pay to get it fixed.

APPROACH 4

1. you are making a lot of fuss over a small thing.
2. You get help from me. If you need help, you should have needed differently.
3. I can't pay for the fence.
4. I don't like the dog at all and the responsibility.
5. How often you bark and what with you bark.
6. Why don't you get rid of it?
7. You are foolish. One day you'll be old and you'll need a pet for company.