

WRITING LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

One of the reasons that our community helps us become a better community is the newspaper and its pages. We invite you to write letters to the editor, to express your views on local issues, to praise and criticize, and to share your thoughts. Letters are edited by the newspaper staff but published and distributed to the community. They are given priority as part of the process.

You can write your own letters to the editor on any issue that you have discussed before. You must write your letter in English and use proper grammar. Each letter must contain at least two arguments that explain your position or opinion, as well as a clearly stated position. An opposing argument and explain why you have a better one. Letters should be 100-150 words long.

The structure of your letter should be as follows:

1. Opening
2. Argument one (state your position, explain your position)
3. Argument two (state your position, explain your position)
4. Argument three (state your position, explain your position)
5. Conclusion (state your position, explain your position)

You must also write your letter in English and use proper grammar. Letters should be 100-150 words long.
