

Ordering Food Activity
Pre-task worksheet

What to say?
Waiter	Customer
Welcome to our restaurant. Please take this seat.
	Thank you. Can you bring me the menu, please?
Sure. Here's the menu. - Can I take your order? - Are you ready to order? - What would you like?
	- Yes. I'll take _____ [name(s) of the dish(es)] - Yes. I'd like to have _____ [name(s) of the dish(es)]
What else do you want?
	I think I'll have _____ [name(s) of some more dish(es)] No thanks. That's enough for me.
All right. - It won't be long. - Your food will be served right away.
Here's your food. Please enjoy your food.
	Can I have the bill, please? Check please. (check = bill, used in American English and in some British dialects)
It's _____ . (amount)
	Here you are
Thank you. Please come again.

- Cut these lines into strips and ask students to arrange the order
- There is more than one option for some lines – please choose one from them
- Have students recite the whole piece of dialogue
- Those who can recite will be given cash coupon