

Name: _____

Date: _____

Semicolons and Commas Worksheet

A semicolon is a punctuation mark indicating a pause, typically between two main clauses. It is more pronounced and has a pause slightly longer than a comma.

A semicolon can be used with a conjunctive adverb to connect sentences.

Directions: Use a conjunctive adverb from the word bank below to connect sentences with a comma and semicolon.

however

therefore consequently certainly meanwhile

1. He came to the party. He had to leave early.

2. I will get my suitcase. You will also need to get your suitcase.

3. I am upset. You will get yelled at.

4. I believe he will win. He will win because he gives great effort.

5. Susan didn't pass her test. She did not graduate.
