

RELATIVE PRONOUNS

A. JOIN THE SENTENCES USING A RELATIVE PRONOUN.

1. We have seen the dog. It bit the postman.
2. The fisherman caught a fish. It was a salmon.
3. The fisherman caught a fish. He took it home.
4. This is the teacher. She teaches my sister.
5. It's the house. Jack built it.
6. Here's the boy. His parents are doctors.
7. John is a boy. His parents are doctors.
8. I was travelling on a bus. It collided with a taxi.
9. Thomas was riding a horse. It looked tired.
10. The book belongs to Jack. It is a novel.
11. She was the man. He was tall.
12. The lady was going to the cinema. She lost the book.

B. FILL THE BLANK SPACES WITH A RELATIVE PRONOUN.

1. The wind _____ enveloped the landscape, suddenly cleared.
2. The pilot to _____ we are travelling is forty-five years old.
3. The students recognized the singer _____ they had heard before.
4. This is the girl _____ won the race.
5. The teacher said the pupil _____ he thought he could trust.

C. JOIN THE SENTENCES USING A RELATIVE PRONOUN.

1. The man was at the door. The door was open.
2. Tom made mistakes in reading. He could not see well.
3. The hunters climbed the hill. The hill was steep.
4. The boy hurt his feet. The boy cannot walk.
5. I want to see my uncle. He lives out in the country.
6. This is the boy. His girl has some money.